

4 STEPS TO REDUCE MALE BIAS IN NURSING EDUCATION

1. Set expectations through norming and renorming.
2. Dialog and communicate through conversations intended to refocus or reframe interactions.
3. Ensure accountability happens when anyone witnesses or reports occurrences of gender-associated incivility.
4. Develop intentional learning to help faculty and clinical instructors maintain skills + strategies to prevent and intervene.